A SELECTION OF GOLF COURSES WITHIN 5 AND 50 MINUTES OF THE HOTEL

Huddersfield Golf Club. Fixby Hall.

More famously known as simply Fixby it's the headquarters of the Yorkshire Golf Union, designed by the same architect as Walton Heath, which has similar features and attributes. Enjoys lovely parkland setting, heath land, heathers streams and a majestic clubhouse. The genuine article.

Woodsome Hall Golf Club. Delightful course, very pretty with heath, heathers gorse streams majestic trees and probably the finest example of a Jacobean Manor House which is it's clubhouse and the first 'tee is the old croquet lawn. A delight to play.

Howley Hall Golf Club, nr Leeds, another delightful course, lovely setting, a pleasant and gentle walk. Set in a parkland with splendid views over the Calder Valley, streams, ponds heathers and created in the grounds of a majestic Tudor House, now a ruin. Mackenzie Greens present the challenge.

Lindrick Golf Club, Nr Worksop. Venue for Ryder Cup in 1957 where the Great Britain and Ireland team won for the first time since 1929, long challenging and located on the edge of the Derbyshire and Yorkshire borders, the dales and national park. Splendid and a genuine championship challenge.

Sand Moor Golf Club, Leeds. A lovely course again with heath, heathers gorse, small complex greens, a tight course, a real challenge. Dr Alistair Mackenzie helped redesign parts of the course and the greens, so you'll need your best putting stroke. Splendid clubhouse and reputation for hospitality.

Moor Allerton. Nr Leeds, 27 holes, Peter Allis former club professional, again a real championship challenge, designed by Trent Jones senior, fabulous facilities. The setting, like so many in Yorkshire is splendid with great views extending to the dales.

Meltham Golf Club, nearest course to the hotel, a typical heath land course, very tricky greens, lovely views and deceptively long par 4's and tough par 3's.

The Lake near the 8th Tee at Woodsome Hall

Alwoodley Golf Club, Leeds, The Sunningdale of Yorkshire, need I say more!

Other courses include, Moortown. Crossland Heath, Hcbden Bridge (9 holes). Dcwsbury Golf Club.
